Com2uS chooses Exit Games Neutron to power mobile multiplayer games

Hamburg, Germany, 14 February, 2005

Com2uS, one of the world's leading companies for mobile entertainment software, and Exit Games announce their cooperation to enhance Com2uS' mobile games with multiplayer versions. As part of the agreement the multiplayer software expert will provide its Exit Games Neutron development toolkit and services that enable multiplayer gaming, matchmaking, community, event billing and administrative services.

"Exit Games Neutron offers us the ideal technical environment to convert our mobile games into fascinating multiplayer experiences", says Antony Douglas, EMEA Director of Com2uS, regarding the cooperation.

"We are very excited about working with one of the leading mobile games publishers. It is a great challenge to help transforming Com2uS' top titles into multiplayer games and enhance their gameplay with the new functions offered by Exit Games Neutron 2.0", says Exit Games' CEO Harald Behnke.

The extended and improved release 2.0 of the open standard multiplayer solution Exit Games Neutron is released at the 3GSM World Congress. It is the first multiplayer service based on the OMA (Open Mobile Alliance) games service standard, co-developed by Exit Games. Multiplayer games powered by Exit Games Neutron have already been provided by industry leaders, such as Vodafone, T-Mobile or Sony Ericsson.
